Isen Issues Call for Aid On Broadcast

A communitywide appeal for residents to attend a meeting to discuss possible participation of Torrance in a government overseas broadcast series was issued this week by Mayor Albert Isen.

A meeting in the city council chambers has been set for tomorrow evening at 8, and telegrams inviting community leaders to the session have been sent out from the mayor's office.

Isen said two representatives of the U. S. Information Agency would be here from Washington, D. C., to discuss the matter tomorrow.

The broadcast series, called "People to People," is designed to promote better understanding between the citizens of the United States and those of other nations, Isen said.
